10. Directors' recommendations and decisions in connection with dividend distribution pursuant to Regulation 37(A)(1) to the Securities Regulations (Periodic and Immediate Reports), 1970:

On August 15, 2022, the Bank's Board of Directors approved the distribution of dividend at the total amount of NIS 399 million, after it has been presented with the following data:

- The proposed dividend distribution does not have a material effect on the Bank's financial position.*

See below a breakdown of the balance of profits.

- The balance of profits as defined in Section 302 to the Companies Law, prior to the proposed distribution totals NIS 35,188 million (after deducting NIS 4,233 million which are non-distributable profits).*
- The balance of profits as defined in Section 302 to the Companies Law, after the proposed distribution totals NIS 34,789 million (after deducting NIS 4,233 million which are non-distributable profits).*
- The effect of the proposed distribution on the structure of capital, capital adequacy, and leverage and liquidity ratios is based on the forecast for the forthcoming year, whereby the Bank's operating results in the year after the dividend distribution shall be such that the capital adequacy ratio and the leverage and liquidity ratios will not be lower than required.*
- There is no concern that the dividend distribution shall prevent the Bank from meeting its existing and expected obligations.*
- The proposed distribution is out of profits as defined in the Companies Law.*
- The Bank complies with other regulatory restrictions stipulated by the Banking Supervision Department, including the provisions of Proper Conduct of Banking Business Directive No. 331 regarding "Distribution of Dividends by Banking Corporations", as well as capital adequacy, leverage and other restrictions.*

The Board of Directors assessed the Bank's compliance with the profit criteria and the solvency criteria set in Section 302(A) to the Companies Law, and in view of the above approved the Bank's compliance with the distribution criteria.

In view of the above, the Bank's Board of Directors reached the conclusion that there is no impediment to the distribution of a dividend of NIS 399 million, constituting 20% of the net income for the second quarter of 2022.

The dividend to be distributed is derived from income that was subject to corporate tax out of profits accumulated through the second quarter of 2022.

The above information includes forward looking information, as defined in the Securities Law, 1968. The Company's estimates may not materialize, in whole or in part, or may materialize in a materially different manner than expected, due to, among other things, changes in market conditions, and the materialization of one of the risks listed in the Bank's reports, the Board of Directors' report as of December 31, 2021, the Bank's 2021 periodic report, and the financial statements as of June 30, 2022.
